

Guard of Honour - Policy of Baltinglass Golf Club

Guard of Honour representation by the Club is reserved solely for past or present Captains, Presidents & Trustees. If a past Captain or past President subsequently becomes a member of another Golf Club, and a guard of honour is being organised in their Club, a representation by the current officers and members will suffice unless Baltinglass Golf Club is requested to join with their proposed guard of honour.